Financing And Handling The Wheat Crop

Toronto— It is unfortunate that Canada's biggest item in her trade year, wheat, gets most prominently on to the front page in times of turmoil. When things are normal there is little said about wheat. Yet its story is of importance at all times

Follow a few facts concerning the giant rural organizations which have grown up since the fall of 1923, but whose genesis reaches back to the pioneer farm organizers under the leadership of Hon. W. R. Motherwell and the late Peter Dayman at Indian Head. Saskatchewan almost thirty years ago. It is thought that such related details as are here given may help to hold sections of this wheat picture in fair focus.

During the 1928-29 crop year, 6.000 new members decided to sell through the pool in Saskatchewan The figures for the flanking provinces are not yet known.

During the 192J—29 crop year, including a carry over at August 31 of 48.358.585 bushels. the Canadian Pool handled 253,102,585 bushels of wheat. Their month—by—month sales record reads roughly as follows (000,000) omitted: Sept. 29. October 24, November,22; December, 22; January 2929, 18; February 15; March. 15; April, 13; May, 41—2; June, 20; July. 13; August, 3 3—4. In this connection the pool comments as follows: "these figures should go far to dispel the erroneous impression so much circulated that our policy was to hold up supplies. We were faced this year with the problem of selling into consumptive channels 1,000,000 bushels of wheat each market day. This competition however of Argintine wheat was such as to almost completely drive us from the export market in the later part of the season. The fact that we avoided a carryover in the preceding year enabled us to meet the situation without difficulty.

Of the foregoing 253,000,000 bushels of wheat, 108,140,608 bushels were exported to some 19 countries noteably:—

	Bushels.
United Kingdom	34,664,851
Japan	11.090.000
Belgium	10,682,967
Holland	10.144,151
Italy	8.775,285
Germany	7,885,647
France	7,806,600
China	6,682,000

Shipments of over 1,000,000 bushels of Pool wheat went to Ireland, Spain, Greece. Sweden, Norway. Denmark and Siberia. It is a further point of interest to note that in the above overseas business, 65,276,000 bushels came through Eastern Canadian ports—while 42,864,000 bushels took the Western route via British Columbian ports.

In the situation today much publicity is being accorded to the financial problems as between the Pool and the Government and the banks. The problem gets its importance from the strategic position held by wheat in the balance sheet, not alone of the Dominion, but of its industries and the homes of the people everywhere.

The following sums indicate the size and importance of Pool activities for the crop year 1928-29.

Interest and bank charges	2,999,853
Insurance (stocks of grain)	263.192
Insurance (lake shipments)	317,326
Freight (from Lakehead to Seaboards)	4,452.765
Marine insurance (export-cargoes)	293.361
Ocean freight (export cargoes)	9,263,063
Storage charges (grain inall positions	8,164,881

It will be observed that the financial commitments as between the Pool and the lending banks represent the equivalent of a $10,000. Pool cheque, in lieu of those accomodations, every weekday morning throughout the year. It should be set down here that the banks have always had a credit relationship with wheat. All that has happened in this respect is that there is a single borrower instead of 140,000. This condition is referred to in the latest available annual report of the Canadian Pool significantly, if pithly: "The usual good relations with our bankers. to which we have become accustomed have ben fully maintained."

Recently an accelerated movement of wheat into the Winnipeg terminals has been noted. Last year, in the same period. 750 cars of wheat were "inspected," as against a movement of 2,200 cars this year. This may or may not indicate a true crosssection of farm opinion as to future price trends. In the meantime it will be generally desired that the Pool and the banks arrive at suitable operative arrangements.

Finally, it can be said that the average grower in the Canadian West—in and out of the Pool—deprecates political infiltration into his economic affairs. It is widely recognized, too, that, while the problem of the organized farmers is to decide on an "initial" payment, enabling the orderly marketing of the wheat. If the grain was to roll onto glutted markets from an additional 140.000 unitized unorganized growers, as in pre-Pool days, the question would still be an open one as to whether the figure for No. 1 Northern should be 60 or 70 cents; but as to it being a 'final' rather than an 'initial' payment there would be not the least doubt.

Board Of Health Held Meeting

A meeting of the Board of Health of the Town of Strathmore was held on the 15th day of August 1930. Present Mayor Shrimpton. in the chair, Mr J. A. French and Dr Giffen, M. H. O.

The Minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

The Secretary reported that he had received a copy of the regulation dealing with dairies. which he had handed to Dr Giffen.

The meting was called on short notice to consider the situation arising by reason of an outbreak of poliomyelitis, infantile paralysis in Calgary and an epidemic of whooping cough in Strathmore.

Dr Giffen reported that so far 8 cases of whooping cough had been reported to him and were under his care, and that he was of opinion further cases were likely. It was advised that if children become ill parents should get in touch with Dr Giffen at once and this applies both to whooping cough and infantile paralysis. The meeting was of the opinion that should any case of the latter occur that the patient should be sent to Calgary for treatment and kept there under surveillance until the disease develops.

In view of the whole situation the Secretary was instructed to have cards printed and circulated throughout the town requesting parents to keep their children at home and not have them mix with other families.

According to Dr. Giffen it looks as if it would be inadvisable to open school on the 2nd. of September. Next meeting of the board will be held on Tuesday, 26th. Aug. to consider the matter of opening the school.

ADMIRABLE PRECAUTION RECOMMENDED

Members of the Calgary council voted unanimously to place a ban upon the activities of boys and girls eighteen years of age and under, in an effort to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis. which has taken a toll of four deaths in Calgary. Fourteen cases in all have been reported.

Swimming pools. dance halls, Sunday schools, churches, wading pools, busines colleges and theatres will come under the ban. The baby clinics, which are attended by approximately seventy children every day, will be closed down completely until further notice. The ban on the other places mentioned above will continue for two weeks at least.

May Lose $500,000,000 In Export Trade

New York: There has been some minor recovery in general business and sentiment in much more hopeful but it does not look like any run away rush forward in trade and commerce Rather it appears that we will witness a gradual and slow recovery. This probably explains why the stock market is not indulging in any brash antics on the bull side. There are too many bears in the picture now to take a shot at the short side of the list on each and every price bulge .

There is much difference in opinion about the immediate future although most folks are in agreement that nothing like a rampant bull market is in the cards for many months to come. One important commentator taking the bearish point of few writers: "Although believing that the rally is about exhausted and normally would expect the downward trend to be resumed, we recognize a condition of uncertainty for the immediate future, and concede the possibility of shorter forward movement, before turning down. A sustained upward move from this level is almost inconceivable at present writing."

The above opinion is a fair sample of what many houses are disseminating at the moment and this is one of the adverse factors against which the constructive forces have had to struggle. As this is being written news has come of the victory of the Conservative party in the Canadian elections. This may mean tariff reprisals by Canada against the United States. a development that would not be beneficial to us if we lose as has been predicted some $500,000.000 worth of export business a year. This may prove unfavorable to the stock market. It certainly adds a big uncertainity to the general situation.

Of all stocks I like the public utilities best.

Letter To The Editor

Editor Strathmore Standard
Strathmore, Alberta

Dear Sir:-

I understand that statements have been and are being made, to the effect, that I was responsible for the charge being laid by Mr Le Marquand against F. J. Dunn, and that if it had not been for me, the said F. J. Dunn would not have been prosecuted and convicted.

This is an absolute falsehood. I had nothing to do with this matter in any shape or form.

I am satisfied, that if Mr Le Marquand were able, he would willingly come forward and deny the rumor. Unfortunately he is at present being looked after in a government institution.

If the party or parties making these statements. will come out in the open, I will give them every opportunity to prove these statements.

Thanking you, Mr Editor, for publishing my position in this matter. I am. Yours truly,

JOS. VAN TIGHEM

The bandit is described as being about five feet six inches, medium build, round face. light hair and fairly well dressed in a blue suit.

SPORT NOTES

DEMPSEY INVESTS IN GAMBLING CASINO

San Diego, Calif., Jack Dempsey. along with his pal and former manager, Gene Normile, has invested $800,000 in a gambling Casino at Encinati, Mexico. just across the border from San Deigo. Dempsey and Normile hope to make their Encinati gambling resort the Monte Carlo of America and no stone is being left unturned in this move. Dempsey admits to close friends his fighting days are over if this investment proves a success.

Encinati is across the Mexican border on the shores of the Pacific Ocean. The Casino according to Dempsey. will in time become one of the most gorgeous resorts in the world. It is understood Jack has $$400,000 actually invested, while Normile and several others possess the other 50 per cent. Dempsey advised friends here he never will return to the ring should Encinati do as well as they expect. He has $1,000,000 placed away in a trust fund and receives $$60,000 per year as interest. With Encinati proving a money maker. Dempsey should have no financial worries for the rest of his life.

WILL STRIBLING MEET GRIFFITH

Chicago. Promoter Sammy Wolff is enroute to New York in an attempt to arrange a match between Tuffy Griffith and Young Stribling at Comiskey Park next month. Wolff has Griffith under contract and hopes to obtain the consent of the Georgian who returned from Europe Tuesday night.

CUBS HAVE LONG STAY AT HOME

Western teams of the National League have opened their last long series at home. St Louis and Chicago are the only clubs that have any particular interest in this fact. Brooklyn and New York are faced with the necessity of making a long trip abroad for nearly a month and how they fare will determine largely their chances in the pennant race.

It they can return from this long swing around the circuit within striking distance of the pennant, they have a reasonable chance of emerging the victors. If they fall far behind. only a heroic stand on the home grounds will bring them the bacon.

The same holds true to a greater extent for the Cubs and Cardinals. The Cubs, in particular are not a great traveling team and they must bolster their averages considerably during the home stay before taking to the road for what practically amounts to the final games of the year if they are to repeat their success of last year. The Cardinals do not find foreign games such a bugaboo and have a fighting chance, if they are close to the top when the last swing around the circuit comes.

As there promises to be little opposition from the West to the pennant aspirations of Philadelphia. Washington or New York, in the American League, the fact that all three of them wind up the season traveling in the west will not make much difference. The only team favored by such a schedule is Cleveland and the Indians have dropped so far back in the race that they will have to do considerable humping in order to get back in the running.

It looks therefore all three Eastern teams in the American League should improve their perecntage while entertaining their Western rivals, with Philadelphia probably increasing its margin over the others and winding up in a canter with the flag firmly in its grasp.

The outlook is that the race in the American will wind up with Philadelphia first, Washington second. New York third. Cleveland fourth and Detroit fifth. Chicago St. Louis and Boston probably will be fighting it out all the rest of the season for the other three bottom places

PITCHERS CALLING FOR HELP

With John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, and Hank O'Day, the veteran umpire advocating the shortening of the pitching distance and Mickey Welch a famous pitcher in the National League forty years ago. favoring the return of the old box and most of the twirlers hollering for help. it is not likely that anything will be done to lesson the football scores being run up by baseball.

Because Babe Ruth came into popularity on account of his home run clouting the majority of the magnates still think that is what the fans want. They pay no attention to the thousands of letters reaching their offices do nothing else than watch the ball sail out of the ball park.

Welsh thinks the restoration of the old box, so that the flinger could take a step before each delivery and thus get his body and legs into the pitch would solve the pitcher's problems.

These suggestions recall the changes that have ben made in pitching rules. In 1876, the first year of the National League. the pitching distance was 45 feet, the pitcher had to stand in a box six feet square and only an underhand delivery was allowed until 1884. In 1881 the box was moved back five feet and 50 feet was the pitching distance until 1893. In 1886 the size of the box was changed and again in 1892.

The number of strikes allowed a batter has been three except one year—1887—when it was four. The bases-on-ball rule has been altered several times. Until 1880 nine called balls were required; in 1880, eight; the next three years, seven; the next two six; in 1886, seven: in 1887 and 88, five and since 1889, four.

LONGDON LEADING WESTERN CANADA JOCKEYS

Victoria. B. C. Riding eight firsts. seven seconds and six thirds during the seven day's racing that concluded at Hasting's Park last week. Jockey Longdon, well known in Calgary jumped into the lead for honors on British Columbia tracks during the 1930 racing season, now having ridden three more winners than W. Robertson, who has second place. The latter piloted only four winners. four seconds and four thirds during the Hastings meetings. Swift had four winning mounts and Zeek three. and they are tied for winners with 12 each. but the former takes precedence through having been astride one more place horse than Zeek.

STELLA WALSH RUNS 100 YARDS IN 10 4-5s.

Stella Walsh, Cleveland sprinter oettered all previous women's records for the 100 yard dash Aug. 4, when she ran the distance in 10 4-5s. Miss Walsh's mark was established on Cornwall's new cinder track at the Canadian Legion field day games.

The previous record of 11s. flat was set by Rosa Grosse O'Neill of Toronto and equalled last winter by Miss Walsh at Boston.

New York, N. Y. Frank Keeney. known throughout the turf world as the "Run-out Kid." is around and doing with some fresh money. Having passed up Keeney Park, he is now gambling high, wide and handsome on ball games.

During the Brooklyn series with the Chicago Cubs, Keeney planted his kale on the Dodgers and in five games lost exactly $15,000 to Julian (Potatoes) Kauffman, who hails from the Windy City.

Kauffman, who is one of the boys who like to roll for high stakes, placed $5,000 on the line for each game. He stipulated that Keeney, who wanted the Brooklyn end, must put up cash. This is how it became known the Florida race track promoter had the negotiable.

After Keeney had dropped $15,000 he pleaded for a chance to get even. Kauffman offered to wager any part of $25,000 the Cubs would beat out Brooklyn in the pennant race. but old boy Keeney had seen enough of the Flatbush Fumblers.

Kauffman then offered to take the Cubs against the Giants for any amount. This did not suit Keeney. The latter finally put up $23,000 against $15.000 (all in cash) that Brooklyn would beat out New York by as many as four games.

PROGRESSIVES SURELY DID ACCOMPLISH SOMETHING WORTHWHILE

The eastern Press, or rather that section of it which is never quite so happy as in taking a poke at the west is now in great feather after the Federal election, not so much over the wonderful victory of Premier R. B. Bennett, but rather over the dimunition in the power of the Progressives.

So narrow are these birds that in gloating over the victory by stating that the Progressives have passed without a single mark of their existence in the form of beneficial legislation. What an outstanding presentation of prejudiced judgement.

Every one knows that had it not been for the Progressives that the Crow's Nest Pass rates would have gone into the discard, while many of the Liberals were in favor yet there remained enough of them that wore Eastern colored glasses that together with the opposition would have prevented the rates coming into effect.

The saving thus obtained is estimated at $30,000,000 annually and possibly will grow as the west develops, to a much larger total.

It would be well for the small guard who will return to Ottawa, which includes the successful representative for Bow Valley, E. J Garland to keep his peepers on the very same Crow's Nest Pass rates in case an attempt may be made under a new Government to go back to the rates that were put into force during the war.

When will the 'Little Easterners' appreciate that when the west is not prospering that hard times are soon in sight for the east.

That St. James Street bunch will stand considerable watching without hurting the progress of the west.

They are a clever bunch and because of that cleverness much more dangerous than the ordinary garden variety of promoters.

ECONOMIST PREDICTS END OF BIG CITIES

Electricity and gas as factors in bringing "The End of The Big City" are discussed by the Wabash, Ind., Plain Dealer.

"The industrial revolution caused by the steam engine produced the big city, and has operated ever since to make the big city grow bigger and bigger without a letup

"Now the new industrial revolution is in the offing, with gas and electricity as its mainstays; and it is going to undo the work of the first revolution and disperse the big city all over the landscape again.

"This, at any rate, is the theory suggested by Dr Gus Dyer, professor of political economy at Vanderbilt university, as outlined by him in a speech before the Executives' Club of Chicago recently.

"The last twenty years, says Dr Dyer, have seen a miracle wrought in America by the new application of gas and electricity to idustry. says. "It has brought all America out on the great highways of life. It is taking everything worth seeing and hearing from the cities and carrying to remote sections. It is destroying the reasons why people should go to the cities to live.

"Industries are going back to the country and the small town. The cities have the greatest fight they ever had if they are to hold their places under the new order. The small places have advantages for industry that the city can hardly meet. The cities have got to make a readjustment recognize a new force.

"As a prophet, Dr Dyer may be less than infallible. His prophecy is interesting, just the same. We have been calmly asuming that the present drift of population toward the cities is going to continue indefinitely; what an upset is in prospect if this flow is presently to be reversed.

"His thesis does not sound unreasonable either. A visit to any one of the half dozen largest cities in this land is about enough to convince any unprejudiced observer that a great city, in many ways, is not a very good place to live. Year by year the congestion grows more unbearable, the noise and the dirt grow more oppressive, the time lengthens and lengthens. New York is already giving indications that it is just a trifle too large for any earthly use. Chicago is beginning to display the same symptoms. And some other cities are not far behind.

"After all, why not? We have gone just a little bit too far in our deification of the big city. The genuine advantages that come from living in the smaller place tend to get overlooked.

"If Dr Dyer is right, and a wholesale splitting up of our cities is in prospect, we are in for some enormous, surprising changes. But perhaps we shall be better off, in the long run."

HELP UNEMPLOYMENT THROUGH SYSTEM OF REFORESTRATION

The following story from Raleigh, North Carolina is most interesting:—

'Utilization of what is termed 'worn out' land for purposes of reforestration is urged by Dr J. V. Hoffman, head of the school of forestry at the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering. "A great deal of the land that has become unprofitable for agriculture," he says, "is very good forest producing soil. The records of the agricultural section of North Carolina show that there are large areas being cultivated at no profit. The remedy for some of this would be to abandon some of the non-productive cleared land and farm the other sections more intensively and at a profit."

Further, he stated, "The wood using industries that are now operating in the State of North Carolina, it is estimated, have a value of about $200.000.000 annually, In order to maintain these industries, the materials required for their needs must be produced within reach of the plants." He then went on to point out that the gigantic furniture industry of North Carolina and other industries using wood are vitally affected by the forestry problem. "

Canada has unlimited areas suitable for reforestration and the new Bennett Government might do much worse than work a plan to use large numbers of the unemployed upon this work which in years to come would pay back big dividends upon every dollar thus invested, and would reach maturity at a time when there will be an actual shortage as 75 to 100 years is a short time in the history of a nation.

Rockyford

Mr and Mrs Jas Black are at Banff for a portion of their holidays.

Mrs R. L. Stone is at Bow Island spending a week with her mother Mrs Hurlbutt and her sister.

The friends of Mr and Mrs Wilfred Carpenter surprised them at their home on Thursday evening to celebrate with them the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. Mr Carpenter when he was a young man came from England and settled in Manitoba, where he afterwards married Miss Nellie Mathews of Rapid City in 1905, and some time later moved to Medicine Hat where he worked at his trade of Harness Maker until the war broke out when he joined up with the 3rd Mounted Canadian Rifles as Saddlery Sergeant and served overseas for four years. He returned to Medicine Hat and then to Rockyford where he and his family have lived ever since. He has for the last eight years been in business for himself as Hardware Merchant. There are four children, Mrs W. Gillespie of Rockyford, Miss Leah a druggist at Lacombe. Miss Alice who attends High School here and Neal the only son who is four years old. The following relatives were able to be present for the event. Mr and Mrs H. Carpenter of Revelstoke, Mrs Carpenter's mother Mrs Owen of Medicine Hat, and her three sisters Mrs Stevenson of Medicine Hat, Mrs Stafford of Edson and Mrs Neilson of Peers, Alta. Messages were received from the brothers and sisters who were unable to attend also Mrs Carpenter's parents in England. Early in the evening the guests started to arrive and gathered on the well lighted lawn, where they danced to the old time music provided by a three piece orchestra from town During the evening Mr Pust in a few well chosen words extended the good wishes of the community and presented the wedded couple with a silver collection. to which Mr Carpenter very suitably replied. A basket of beautiful flowers was then given to Mrs Carpenter by her small neice with congratulations from many friends. An interesting feature of the occasion was the presence of the four generations, Mrs Owens, her daughter Mrs Carpenter, her grand daughter Mrs Gillespie, and Miss Barbara the great grand daughter. The surprise of the evening for the wedding party was finally completed when the ladies produced a large beautifully iced Wedding Cake and ice cream, which was cut by the bride and served to the assembly.

The first annual exhibition of the Rockyford Horticultural Society will be held here on September 5 and 6. Even though it is a dry year there is plenty of material in the district to make a grand display and surprise everyone. Let us bring all the exhibits we can and make this first fair a real success.

We are sorry to hear that Dr Shaubber of Tudor had the misfortune to fall down the cellar step last week and get badly bruised. besides having a bone in his leg splintered.

A very heavy rain accompanied by considerable hail visited the district on Tuesday afternoon. The amount of the damage was not yet estimated though a portion of the crop was already combined.

Mr and Mrs Booth who were at one time residents near Rockyford but are now in Indiana, motored back here for a visit with friends while tending their interests here. They will visit points farther west before returning again.

Blanch Fraser has returned to her home in Nanton after visiting for some time with Miss Marjorie Stone and renewing acquaintances in town.

Mrs Gilbert is home from her holiday with the rest of her family at Hobbema, Alta. Mr Gilbert and the children will arrive some time this week. The church service on Sunday evening was taken by Mrs Gilbert. Her talk was based on the life of Robt. Riggs, the Gloucester Pioneer who was the first man to start the Sunday School movement in England for the world. Her talk was most enjoyable to all and especially those interested in Sunday School work.

Mrs Chapman of Calgary is visiting with her sister Mrs Ed. McLean for a week.

Mrs Birt had as her company this week Mrs Reeves of Calgary.

Mr George Marshman arrived on Thursday evening from his home in Eugee, Oregon and will remain till after the harvest on his farm north of town and with his brother

Most of the farmers are hard at the harvest. A good deal of combining work is being done which is the better way to take care of the short crop. The yield per acre is better than expected and the grade for what is left is very good indeed, most of the grain is going No. 1.

EARL OF EGMONT RAISING TAXES

London, Frederick George Trevalyan, the rancher Earl of Egmont ,has dcided to sell not only Avon castle. in Hants, the ancestral seat of the Earls of Egmont, but also the heirlooms, silver and pictures, which go with the estate. The reason for the prospective sale lies in the large death duties levied on the estate of his kinsman, the ninth Earl, and the duties which his own estate must eventually be, states Lord Egmont in explanation.

It was only a few weeks ago that Frederick George Trevalyan's right to the title and its properties was confirmed by a judge of the high court .

The earl says he will sell the movables first. "I want to see what I can raise on them and other properties before putting a price on the castle," he added.

The present and tenth Earl of Egmont succeeded to the title last year. He was formerly rancher at Priddis. His claim was contested by two persons. who traced descent from earlier earls, but the 9th earl, armed with the family tree, had designated the Albertan as his lawful heir and the high court upheld the present earl.
